Sonargaon University

Course Title: English I
Course Code: Hum 1102
Assignment On: Corruption of Bangladesh

Submitted By:
Name: Rasel Shikder
ID NO: BBA2402032084
Department: BBA (Amazon)

Submitted To:
Sadia Jaman Nigar
Lecturer, GED
Sonargaon University
147/1, Green Road, Panthapath, Dhaka

Date of Submission: 20 Aug 2024

Corruption is a complex matter in Bangladesh. It is a major problem in the third world countries but it has been the burning question in Bangladesh. Transparacy international found it as most corrupted countries list. All the government and the administerative organaizations are corrupted severly as well. Taking nepotism, misuse of power are the nature of corruption. No department of either government or non government like ministry office, school, collage, university. law court, police station, hospital etc. is beyond the reach of corruption. In this country nothing is work without corruption. The difrences between the rich and poor being wide day by day. It has become humiliting for our nation, It spoiling our images in internationally. This is the ony reason Foreign investors, and international organaizations ~~on~~. disagree to provide fundings. Nepotism favoritism baist attitude etc. should dealt with Storngly.

Only our honest approch can help government and the administrave to ensure good governance. It should be prevented urgenty otherwise, we will fail to build to build up a better generation. We should look forward to ensuring corroption free socity as well as corruption free country.

Current state of corruption in Bangladesh is much alarming. Hiugh profile case, involving politions, government officials and bussiness leader frequntly being headlines of news. In recent time there have been several notable corruptin highlighten by media and retated orgazation. For example in this year Former Police cheif's involving in corrouption when he was in the top position of Bangla desh police, he gathered mony in banks which is unaccountable and gathend land ~~an~~ over 1000 Acors across around Bangladesh and acquired property in home and abroad. For assesing the level of corruption we do not need to go far past in this month a TV Reporter call Abdullh Al Imran exposed the group of government formar and current officials who leaked ~~of~~out the question papers of govt, jobs exam. Even this group leaked the paper of Bangladesh civil Servis Exam which is the higer Level of government oficials exam. Accomiding to Trasparcy Internationl 2024's report Bangladesh Ranked 149th out of 180 countries on the corruptions Perceptions index, indicating a high Level of perceived corruption. Such statics reflects a systematic issue that driving the nation to disease.

Corruption also affects everyday life for ordinary Citizens, ~~is~~ Bribery in public services such as healthcare, education, and law enforcement is furious citizens often use ~~t~~ bribes to access basic services, as those unable to pay bribes are Left disadvantaged.

The causes of corruption in Bangladesh are multilayered. key factors. key faeton include governance, lack of trancparcy, poor leagal frameworks, and poor enforcement of existing Laws. Politicians often use public resources for personal gain. The impact of corruption are far-reaching and harmful to Bangladesh's devlopment and it also causes economically. Acconiding to ~~B~~ World Bank, every year the cost cost of corruption is 2-3% of GDP in this country. This economics drain hamper to reduce proverty and living standards as well. Moreover, it delays the delivery of essential services, such as healthcare and education. For instance illegal logging and land grabbing, offten facilited by corrupted officials.

The government has implementd several anti-corruptions units and ~~or~~ diffrents Organization. It started form the establishment of Anti-Corruption Comission (ACC) in 2004. The ACC is tasked with investing and prosecuting corruption cases promoting transparency, and raising public awarness about the issues. In recent years ACC working more actively with all of the responsibilities, investing ~~his~~ high profile cases.

For example recently after being exposed the ~~group~~ ~~of~~ job and others exam question out's group. Theny they make a investing team to find out the truth and all the corroptions commited by this group and after getting all the prove aginst the acquised person, they arested them immediatly and trying to get more information about these group. Moreover, couple of month ago they started investigations several officials of government including former officials. The government introduced law about trancparacy and accountibilites of officials. Civil society and media play vital role in this. NGOs such as Transparacy International Bangladesh, condact a research, adbocate for policy changes and raise public awarness. Invastigate journalism has also been important role in exposing corruption and holding those powers accountable. 2. International organaizations and donors agencies provide support for anti-corruption initives. For instance, the World Bank and the United nations Devlopment Programme (UNDP) have funded projects in industrial capacity in Bangladesh.

The ACC often trolled by people in social media and Debates in Tv show for the lack of freedom and effectiveness, with allegations of political interfear it's work. Ensuring the neutrality and ~~imp~~ independence in invastagating and other proceduring so that it can be succe~~ed~~ to punish and ~~allir the~~ taking these corrupted people to their destiny where cort and laws decide. Additionally, there is a need for comprehensive Leagal and ~~improving the~~ industrial reforms. ~~Stn~~ Making stronger the judiciary, increasing the capacity of law enforcement agencies, and improving the legal framework for asset recovery are crucial steps in the fight against corruptions.

pubic participation is also vital. Engaging peoples in atti corroupton efforts through education and awarness campaigns can foster a cuture of integity and accountibilities.
Enabling countries people to reoport corruption and ensuring informers protection are more vital to keep ~~it~~ it continious. Technological advancement offers new opportunites for corruption. E-governance such as digitalaizing public services and implementing trasparent procrument system can reduce oppurtunity for corrupt pratices. and making changes in Salary system of every sector in government administrion the schope of crroption can be reduced easily. And there has lots of scehme to ~~de~~ motivated ~~the~~ people to not involving in corruption.

Nowadays corruption became a significant Challanges in Bangladesh. It spreading like ~~dieses~~ dieases. For this challanges goverment failing to acquire citizens trust on ~~coun~~ country

Although corruption is a common problem in the world, it seem more in devloping countries. Bangladesh is one of devloping countries in the world, and also this country experiance most number of corroption cases.

The high parchantages of corruption in Bangladesh is mostly caused by lack of laws. The events of corruption in the country are expected to continiue for long time unless and freedom criminal justice system and self-governing and anti-Corruption Commison are formed.

By Addressing these challanges, Bangladesh can concrete the way for a more just and prospect future. And some implementions by the government of Bangladesh can assist the country in the fight against corruption.