Examples of Poission Distribution

1. A telephone exchange receives on an average 4 calls per minute, find the probability of

i. At least two calls per minute ii. More than one calls per minute

2. A car hired company has 4 cars, on average, find the probability of

i. At least two cars are hired out one day ii. Exactly 4 cars are hired out one day iii. No cars are hired a day iv. At most 3 cars are hired out one day
v. More than 2 cars are hired out one day

3. In a famous perfume company, the manufacturers sell perfume in retail price as a discount. Generally, they can sell 10 perfumes a day, on average. Find the probability of getting

   i. At most 2 perfumes a day ii. At least 4 perfumes a day iii. Exactly 5 perfumes a day iv. Less than 3 perfumes a day