CONTRACT DATA

Academic programme:	Business & Management Studies
Degree:	Bachelor of Science (B.Sc.)
University campus:	Berlin
Start of semester:	Winter Semester 2026/27
Preliminary start semester:	1 (subject to review by the examination office)
Regular number of semesters:	6 Semester
Tuition fees:	The tuition fees for the entire academic programme within the regular number of semesters amount to € 39,975.00.

On this amount, a discount of 15% for the 1st year in the amount of € 1,998.75, 20% for the 2nd year in the amount of € 2,665.00 and 25% for the 3rd year in the amount of € 3,331.25 is granted. The annual tuition fee for the 1st academic year should be paid within 6 weeks of signing the contract. An additional discount of 5% is granted for the respective academic year if the annual tuition fee is paid within 6 weeks of signing the contract and the annual tuition fees for each subsequent study year should be paid before the start of that academic year. Payable net tuition fee for the 1st academic year with additional 5% discount amount to € 10,660.00.

If the last day of enrolment is less than 6 weeks after signing the contract, the payment period does not apply, and the annual tuition fee should be paid before the last day of enrolment.

The aforementioned discounts apply exclusively to tuition fees for the standard period of study. These discounts expressly do not apply to tuition fees outside the standard period of study, administrative fees, or any other fees. See also §5 of the study contract.

Note: Students have the option of entering into an instalment payment agreement for an administrative fee of € 250 per semester in accordance with §5 of the study contract. Further details are specified in the instalment payment agreement.

- hereinafter referred to as "Contract Data" –

Both parties are obligated to treat the tuition fees and payment terms agreed in the contract as strictly confidential.

Instruction on the right of revocation

If the Student Contract is concluded by means of remote communication, you have the right to revoke the Student Contract without a statement of reasons: The period for revocation is 14 days from the date of the conclusion of the contract, i.e. from receipt of the contract countersigned by you, which you have sent to us by email (send date of the email).

To exercise the right of revocation, you have to inform the University at the address: University of Europe for Applied Sciences GmbH, Dessauer Str. 3-5, 10963 Berlin, email: applications@ue-germany.com by means of an unambiguous written declaration (e.g. by a letter or an email) of your decision to revoke this contract. For this purpose, you can use the sample revocation form, which we make available on our website at www.ue-germany.com (which, however, is not mandatory for use), or by means of another unambiguous declaration stating your complete address. To observe the revocation period, it is sufficient if you mail the notification of the exercise of the right of revocation before expiration of the revocation period.

Consequences of revocation

If you revoke this contract, we will repay the amount of the payment we have received from you without delay, at the latest within fourteen days from the date on which we have received your notice of the revocation of this contract. We will use the same payment instrument for this repayment, as the one that you have used in the original transaction, unless agreed otherwise with you. No fees will be charged for this repayment.

If you have used our services at your request during the revocation period, we shall be entitled to demand an appropriate amount as consideration, equalling the portion of the services already performed by this date on which you inform us of the exercise of the right of revocation regarding this contract, relative to the total scope of the services intended under the contract.

In addition to the aforementioned contract data, the following conditions – besides the legal regulations of the State of Brandenburg regarding universities, the study and exam rules, and the university guidelines in their respectively valid versions – apply to the agreement on university studies concluded between the university and the student (hereinafter referred to as the "Student Contract"), whereas deviating terms may apply to students from the EU (hereinafter: "EU Students") and students from outside of the EU (hereinafter: "Non-EU Students"):

§ 1 CONCLUSION OF THE CONTRACT

(1) The contract becomes effective from the moment the Student or his/her legal representative countersigns the Student Contract and returns it to the University.

(2) The Student is informed that the actual realisation of the offered academic programme depends on the required minimum number of participants for this academic programme being reached.
If, contrary to all expectations, the offered academic programme is not realised because the minimum number of participants was not reached, the University expressly reserves the right to withdraw from this Student Contract. If applicable, the University will send the Student a withdrawal declaration at the latest 4 weeks before the start of lectures in the respective semester. In that case, the registration will be withdrawn. Any tuition fees having already been paid at that time will be refunded in the full amount to the Student.

§ 2 ACADEMIC PROGRAMME:

(1) Registration: If the admission conditions are fulfilled and, if applicable, upon passing the selection procedure and signing the Student Contract, the candidates will be registered for the respective academic programme. Registration cannot take place if university admission is not granted, so if a completed registration is deemed invalid due to incorrect statements by the Student, the university will reverse the registration.

(2) Conditional offer: If the Student is accepted conditionally and the student fails to meet the condition by the corresponding deadline (as specified in the admission documentation), the Student will immediately be withdrawn from the programme and refunded the tuition fees minus 150 EUR administration charge.

(3) Start of studies and regular number of semesters for the academic programme: Depending on the registration date, the academic programme begins at the start of the summer or winter semester, and ends on passing all required exam requirements for the university degree, or on the final failure of an exam requirement or expiration of the right to take the exam within the regular number of semesters for the academic programme. The regular number of semesters is the period of studies within which an academic programme can be completed. It includes integrated semesters abroad, internships and other practical occupational phases in the course of studies, as well as the exams (Sec. 18 (2) BbgHG ("Brandenburgisches Hochschulgesetz") [Law of the State of Brandenburg regarding Universities]. The regular number of semesters for the individual academic programmes is specified in the respective examination regulations for the course of study.

(4) Required elective modules and elective modules: The Student is informed that the actual realisation of the required elective module and all other elective modules depends on the required minimum number of 20 participants being reached for the respective module. If the minimum number of participants is not reached for a specific module, the University expressly reserves the right not to offer this module. In that case, the Student will need to choose a different module.

(5) Diploma/certificates: If needed (e.g. for the purpose of applying for an education grant according to BAföG [Federal Law concerning the Promotion of Education or Training] or for submission to the health insurer, etc.), a registration certificate or record of study can be issued to the Student prior to or during the studies respectively. An exam certificate will be issued only upon payment of all due tuition fees. Issuance of the diploma additionally requires the return of all items borrowed from the university.

(6) Retake Examinations: Students who are required to retake an examination are automatically enrolled on the next available sitting of the respective examination. Further details are available within the programme academic regulations.

§ 3 SERVICES OF THE UNIVERSITY

(1) Subject to the realisation of the academic programme according to § 1 (2) of the contract, the University undertakes to facilitate the contractually agreed academic programme and hold examinations according to the applicable study and examination rules, on the basis of the Brandenburg State Law regarding Universities. Changes to the rules made by the competent committees of the University and the related implementing directives shall automatically become part of this Student Contract upon publication in the University's gazette.
The University reserves the right in specific cases during the academic programme:

- To have individual modules be taught in English, even in academic programmes held in the German language. The University shall inform of this within good time;
- To offer individual modules online, even in the case of academic programmes organised with a requirement of personal attendance;

- To permit individual modules being held with students of another campus attending or with shared course work on a different campus. The latter, however, only insofar as this is previously agreed upon.
- To amend the programme name and curricula to meet state and accreditation requirements. In all cases students will be informed of such amendments.

(2) The summer semester starts on 1st of March and the winter semester on the 1st of September in each year. The University will announce the exact date of the start of lectures on time in each case.

(3) If modules are cancelled, the University will work toward informing the Students on time and coordinate replacement modules.

(4) As a University of a private carrier, UE, as all private universities, is subject to the rules of the market, whereby a partial or complete discontinuation of the academic programme cannot be ruled out entirely. If this highly unlikely event should occur, Students will have the possibility to continue their studies at a different university within the University's own group of universities operating worldwide or at a different private university. Likewise, the University will issue certificates of the performed studies and exams.

(5) In case of force majeure, which makes delivering modules with personal attendance impossible or in the event that the lecturer is ill, the University shall be entitled to deliver modules digitally (e.g. online tutorials, live webinars, interactive exercises, online seminars and similar offers) instead of in-person modules, and to make digital study documentation (e.g. as pdf files) available, which shall be deemed an equivalent performance of services in such an event.

§ 4 RIGHTS AND DUTIES OF THE STUDENTS

(1) Observation of the University's Terms and Conditions and Guidelines: The Student undertakes to accept the applicable University's Terms and Conditions, academic regulations and the University's Guidelines, and not to obstruct the academic work by his/her conduct. The respectively applicable University's Terms and Conditions, academic regulations and Guidelines are available in the download area and, respectively, on the University intranet, which is accessible to all Students. On request, they will also be made available to the Student by the University's administration.

(2) Availability of technical equipment: It is within the Student's responsibility to have the technical equipment (e.g. laptop or smartphone) available, including the necessary software, as respectively required for the academic programme so as to be able to participate without restrictions in the teaching and examination formats. For this purpose, the Student shall enquire for information with the University on time before the start of studies.

(3) Performance of studies and examinations: The Student shall keep up regularly with his/her course of studies in accordance with the studies and examination rules of each study period and the implementing guidelines of the University in their respectively valid versions (cf. § 2) and he/she shall be personally responsible for performing the required studies and examinations. This obligation requires the Student in particular to participate in modules and examinations on such a regular and continuous basis permitting him/her to reach the necessary credit points for the academic programme within the regular number of semesters as referred to above.

(4) Mode of study: The University delivers its academic programmes on a full-time basis and in face-to-face mode. Therefor all students are expected to attend lectures on campus. Exceptions to this rule must be approved in advance by the University.

(5) Timely payment of tuition fees: By concluding this Student Contract, the Student undertakes to pay the due tuition fees in full and on time. The timely payment of the due tuition fees is the prerequisite for the issuance of the registration certificate in the beginning of the semester, the participation in courses and examinations during the course of studies, and the issuance of the academic transcript, certificate or diploma upon completion of the academic programme. In the event of arrears in payment despite a written payment request and granting of a grace period of 30 days, the University can take further measures according to § 6 (7).

(6) Use of the University email address: The Student is obligated to access the email address made available to him/her by the University on a regular basis (at least two times a week), as important information is communicated through this channel. The student will use their email account in an ethical and considerate manner in compliance with applicable laws and policies, as well as policies and guidelines established by the University.

(7) Observation of copyrights and property rights of third parties: The Student is expressly advised, and he/she confirms this by signing his/her Student Contract, that he/she must respect the rights of third parties, in particular copyrights and property rights, on the teaching material being made available to him/her for the purpose of the studies and within the scope of teaching. This applies in particular regarding the use of computer programs of any kind (e.g. prohibition of copying).

(8) Information of data changes: Any change in the Student's data, which may be used according to the Data Privacy Statement contained in Annex 2, shall be reported to the University without delay.

(9) Attendance requirement: The University delivers its academic programmes on a full-time basis and in face-to-face mode. Therefor all students are expected to attend lectures on campus. Exceptions to this rule must be approved in advance by the University. In person attendance serves to maintain the quality of the academic programme and permits the University to convey the learning contents in the correct way and manner. In case of illness, the Student shall submit a medical certificate to the University at the latest 3 working days after the start of his/her illness to service.center@ue-germany.com.

§ 5 TUITION FEES

(1) The tuition fees cover:

a) implementation of the modules for the respective academic programme;
b) the evaluation of examinations taken;
c) academic pedagogic advising by employees of the University and lecturers;
d) use of the University's IT services (student information systems, software licenses, online databases, which are made available by the University);
e) initial issuance of examination reports, certificates, diplomas and official documents;
f) participation in the defined, mandatory examinations and the modules of the curriculum;
g) all fees for regular examinations and the advising of final thesis/projects, and the crediting of already performed prior academic work.

On campuses where a master agreement regarding Semester Tickets for Students applies between the University and the respectively local transport association, Students are required to purchase a ticket through the University from the respective transport association for each semester, which comes at costs in addition to the listed tuition fee. Semester ticket fee may vary each semester. The costs for the ticket will be indicated in the respectively applicable amount on the University's semester invoice. Details regarding the use of public transport can be found in the terms of transport of the respective transport association.

(2) Not included in the tuition fees are:

a) a non-refundable registration fee of € 490.00 per academic year, applicable at the beginning of each academic year. The final semester fee of 5 and 7-semester programs will be prorated. Master's programs lasting 3 semesters (90ECTS) will be charged once at the beginning of studies.
b) additional equipment, e.g. laptop/tablet (including the software required for the respective course of studies), pocket calculator, art supplies, costs for printing, etc., or further literature, which is needed for participation in the respective teaching and exam formats;
c) a non-refundable fee of € 89.00 per academic year for the provision of technology;
d) any costs of the Student for telephone, postage incl. postal delivery of diplomas and remote data transmission;
e) costs for travel, accommodation and meals incurred for the participation in compulsory or elective courses or internships;
f) costs for additional services. An overview of costs for additional services is available on university website at https://www.ue-germany.com/fees .
g) all costs relating to semesters abroad or internships, and stays abroad in the programme (e.g. a summer/winter school), including the tuition fees of other universities, unless these are covered by joint venture agreements, and the related expenses for travel, accommodation, meals, insurances, etc.;
h) costs incurred by visiting external events or utilisation of third party services (e.g. admission fees for visits to museums, exhibitions, library cards);
i) potential attendance of additional courses beyond the curriculum of the academic programme defined in the contractual data;
j) costs for the issuance of copies of the documents named under § 5 (1) lit. e).

(3) Due date: On the conclusion of this Student Contract, the tuition fee will be owed for the entire period of the academic programme. If the academic programme is completed before the end of the regular number of semesters, the amount of the tuition fee will remain unaffected by this. The University offers settlement of the tuition fee in instalments per semester. The tuition fee shall also be paid during a semester abroad or a practice semester.

The agreed tuition fee shall be payable by the first calendar day of the respective start of the semester as defined in § 3 (2). Payment can be remitted either by a SEPA direct debit mandate set up for an account at a German banking institution, by way of bank transfer or alternative payment methods as listed at www.ue-germany.com/fees

(4) Exceedance of the regular number of semesters: If the academic programme is not completed within the regular number of semesters, the Student shall be obligated to pay an additional tuition fee for each extension semester for missing credit points as per www.ue-germany.com/fees

Missing credit points:	Proportionate payable semester fee
1-2	1/6
3-4	1/3
5-6	1/2
7-8	2/3
9-10	5/6
11-30	1/1

If the Student has already earned all necessary credit points and only needs to complete the final paper (Bachelor's or Master's thesis including related colloquia or defences), the payable additional tuition fee will amount to 1/6 of one semester instalment, as specified under Contract data of this Student Contract, for each semester.

(5) Discounts: The University grants different types of discounts, which cannot be combined with each other. A discount may be granted on application prior to the signing of the contract, provided that the respective conditions are fulfilled. In case the conditions for several discounts are fulfilled, only one price discount will be granted. The fee for the public transport semester ticket according to § 5 (1) is excluded from the discounts.

(6) Price Reductions: The University may grant different types of price reductions (e.g. "limited offer", "special offer" , "early bird offer") that cannot be combined with each other. A price reduction may be granted at the time of application before the conclusion of the contract, provided that the respective conditions are met. In the event that the conditions for multiple price reductions are met, only one price reductions is granted. The fee for the semester ticket of public transport in accordance with Section 5(2) is excluded from the price reduction. The price reductions/discounts offered are only applicable upon completion of the programme. Should the student choose to withdraw or terminate the contract with the University before completing their studies, the price reductions/discounts are deemed void.

(7) Leave semester: Leave may be granted upon request. The request must be submitted to the University with a period of one month before the start of the semester for which the leave semester is requested. In special cases of hardship, it is also permissible to submit a request at a later time. The request must be reasoned in writing; corresponding verifications shall be presented. In case of a leave semester, the University will charge a fee of € 500.00 for the incurred processing costs.

(8) Default: The Student will be in default if the fees are not received by the University by the 1st calendar day of the respective semester start according to § 3 (2) or if an attempted direct debit was not successful. In that case, the University shall be entitled to charge default interest in the amount of 2% above the applicable base interest rate as of the 2nd day of the corresponding month.

(9) Calculation of tuition fee: For accounting purposes, for Master programmes of 60 and 90 ECTS, the total contract price is allocated 90% to the teaching period, on the basis of the estimated value of the service being delivered, and 10% to the dissertation period (thesis period).

§ 6 TERMINATION OF THE STUDENT CONTRACT; POSTPONEMENT OF ADMISSION

(1) Termination before the start of studies: Ahead of the start of studies, students can terminate the student contract with a notice period of 1 month prior to the semester start date as per § 3 (2). In this event, a one-off fee in the equivalent amount of 1/6 of one gross semester fee is payable according to the information under 'Contract data' of this Student Contract.

(2) Ordinary termination: After the semester start, the Student Contract can be terminated ordinarily with a notice period of 1 month before the end of the respective semester. If the termination is not declared within due time for the next semester, the full fee for the semester shall be paid. The right of extraordinary termination continues to apply.

(3) Termination for non-issuance of a visa for Non-EU-students: If the visa for Non-EU Students is refused by the competent German consulate due to reasons not based on student´s fault, the Student Contract can be terminated without notice period, when the rejection letter from the German consulate has been presented to the University. In this case, the reservation fee as well as any tuition fees already paid shall be refunded less a processing fee of € 250.

(4) Termination during a leave semester: If the Student Contract is terminated during a leave semester, which was requested after the prescribed period for this (see § 5 (6)), one full semester tuition fee shall be paid retrospectively instead of the fee for a leave semester.

(5) Form of termination: The notice of termination must be verifiably received by the University by the aforementioned dates (email to: applications@ue-germany.com or to the email address of the respectively competent Student Service department).

(6) Extraordinary termination: Both parties' rights of extraordinary termination for good cause according to § 314 BGB shall remain unaffected. Good cause is given in particular if the continuation of the contractual relationship until the agreed termination or until the expiration of a notice period cannot be reasonably expected from the terminating party, in consideration of all circumstances of the individual case and in consideration of the interests of both parties. Proof of good cause being given shall be presented on request.

Any impossibility of performance that is not anticipatable for the University and not at its fault (e.g. in consequence of sudden illness of the lecturer, for reason of force majeure, etc.) shall not grant the student the right of extraordinary termination or of withholding of any due fees.

In particular, in the following cases, the University reserves the right to terminate the Student Contract without notice upon prior written warning:

a) in case of persistent or serious violation of the applicable study and exam rules and of the University terms and conditions and guidelines by the Student.
b) In case the University establishes at any point that documents submitted during the application process or post enrolment are fraudulent.
c) When the Student persistently fail to pay due fees as per clause § 6 (8)
d) In case of conduct in stark contrast to the contract and in case of continued disruption or neglect of the courses, which is given in particular if:
   a. the Student has failed to perform in the way required by the applicable study and examination rules, and in the way justifying his/her staying at the University;
   b. the Student has neither attended courses nor taken examinations for at least the duration of one semester without approval from the university.

(7) The University reserves the right to refuse or withdraw an offer or cancel the Student's accepted place on a University programme if any of the following apply:

a) if a Student has not met the eligibility or entry criteria for their University programme, including meeting the language requirements and/or if they have failed to comply with the conditions attached to their offer;
b) if a Student fails to satisfy the progression rules set out in the examination regulations for their programme;
c) if a Student fails to supply upon registration a valid passport or other acceptable form of identification;
d) if a Student is found to have committed gross misconduct or found guilty of a serious criminal offence;
e) if a Student has, in the University's reasonable opinion, provided information which is inaccurate, false, incomplete and/or misleading;
f) if there are not enough Students confirmed on the programme;
g) if the running or continuation of the University programme becomes unviable or practically impossible for the University.

In the event of an extraordinary termination of the Student Contract by the University, which is due to the student's conduct, the tuition fees for the complete semester will remain payable.

(8) Termination for default: The Student Contract can be terminated extraordinarily by the University if the Student is in default/arrears of payment in full or in part for more than 60 days, in spite of a dunning, and if no other written agreements with the University have been made in this regard. By termination of the Student Contract, no further participation in the academic programme and related offers of the University will be possible anymore. For students on a study visa the competent authorities will be notified with respect to the cancellation of the student visa at UE.

(9) Deregistration: The University has the right and duty to deregister the Student according to the regulations of the Law of the State of Brandenburg regarding Universities or the respectively relevant study and examination rules of the University and these terms of contract. In that case, the Student Contract will end toward and not before the end of the semester of deregistration. In the case of deregistration because examinations have been failed, this Student Contract shall expire at the end of the month in which deregistration takes place. In case of the termination of this Student Contract by the University or the Student, deregistration will also be effected at the same time.

(10) Postponement of the start of studies: In individual cases, it may be requested that the start of studies can be postponed to the next semester or to the semester that is offered in the academic programme. The request shall be submitted to the University in writing stating the reasons and, if applicable, enclosing the corresponding verifications, at the latest up to 4 weeks after the start of the relevant semester. Another (second) postponement can only be granted in reasoned exceptions in appropriate consideration of the interests of the Student and of the University.

a. If the postponement of the start of studies is granted, the tuition shall become due only on the date of the actual start of studies. Repayment of the reservation fee to Non-EU Students is excluded in these cases. If the Student terminates his/her contract prior to the start of studies, a fee will be invoiced, as it would have had to be paid, had the Student cancelled on the date of the postponement as per fees outlined in§ 6 (1).

§ 7 Rights of use

The Student transfers all potential copyrights, ancillary copyrights and rights of use being created in the course of the studies to the University for non-exclusive and unlimited use. The University shall be entitled in particular to use the transferred rights for the University's commercial purposes. The transfer also includes the right of the University to make optionally many reproductions and disseminate the protected results. The University is not obligated to actually exploit the rights of use. A right of revocation in the Student's entitlement pursuant to Sec. 41 UrhG [German Copyright Act] for non-exercise of the right of use is precluded for a period of five years.

The transfer of the rights of use also relates to such types of use, which were still unknown on the date of the signing of this contract. The Parties agree that no claim is established for remuneration for the transfer. Any rights of the Student pursuant to Sec. 32, Sec. 32a and/or Sec. 32c UrhG shall remain unaffected thereof.

§ 8 RIGHT TO UNDISTURBED POSSESSION/DISCIPLINARY SANCTIONS

The University and its vicarious agents will exercise their right to undisturbed possession when a justified interest is given. In case of serious violations, the University reserves the rights to apply appropriate disciplinary sanctions such as an order to stay away from the premises and/or to take the measure of termination without notice accordance with § 6.

§ 9 LIABILITY

As part of its obligations arising from this Student Contract, the University generally does not assume any liability in the event of loss and/or damage, or other disappearance of valuables or other items owned by the Student. This applies in particular to items and valuables on the campus premises or on the way to the premises and inside of rooms in which courses or other events for Students take place.

§ 10 FINAL PROVISIONS

(1) Changes and amendments to this Student Contract require the written form for validity and the signatures of all parties. This also applies to any change of this provision with exclusions as outlined in 3 (1) above.

(2) If a provision of this Agreement should be or become fully or partly void or ineffective, the validity of the remaining provisions shall not be affected by this. If one of the foregoing clauses should be invalid, said clause shall be replaced by such a clause, which comes closest to what was intended by the University and the Student. The remaining clauses shall remain unaffected.

(3) This Student Contract is exclusively governed by German law.

By my signature, I confirm to have received, read and understood the Student Contract and I grant my agreement to the terms of the contract.

DATA PRIVACY

STUDENT'S CONSENT TO THE USE OF PERSONAL DATA ACCORDING TO SEC. 6 GDPR AND SEC. 15 BbgHG

(1) In order to perform the services agreed under this Student Contract correctly and efficiently; in particular so as to be able to offer, realise and evaluate courses, accounting, and invoicing, University online services, international academic offers with partner universities in the GUS network, dual or extra-occupational courses of study, the use and automated processing of personal data using data processing systems is necessary. This pertains to various processes such as the input of personal data in the application process and their electronic storage in the Customer Relationship Management database; the automatic transmission and processing of the stored data via the internal Campus Net database after the signing of the contract; use of the Campus Net portal for messaging services of the exam office and the administration of the University until the end of the studies. Furthermore, the coordination and implementation of the dual courses of study jointly with vocational schools and other institutions, and the semester abroad as part of the student exchange with partner universities require the use and electronic processing of personal data. The University is authorised to automatically process or contract a service provider for the processing of my personal data for the purposes of implementing the studies and exams, for the management of student affairs, and for administrative purposes. The University shall inform the recipient of my personal data that the transmitted data may be processed or used only for the purpose for fulfilment of which they have been transmitted. The aforementioned data must not be sent to other third parties for the purposes of advertising.

(2) The processing of the personal data specified in paragraph (1) above can be operated, if applicable, partly within the scope of the commissioned data processing according to Sec. 11 BDSG [German Federal Data Protection Act]. For example, the University uses the services of the GUS Shared Services abroad in other European countries within the scope of administration and accounting. Processing outside of the EU is excluded. This can also apply to processing in the United States of America or other countries, which do not have a protection standard that is equivalent of the data protection standard applicable in the EU. In these cases, if applicable, the processing currently takes place on the basis of the so-called standard contract clauses of the EU, which have been drafted by the EU Commission and which are to ensure a data protection standard being observed by the recipient, which is comparable to the data protection standard of the EU. If the EU Commission should decree other requirements for data protection in the future, whereby a comparable data protection standard is created at the recipient's location, which is comparable to the data protection standard of the EU, these regulations can also apply. The regulations of the Federal Data Protection Act and the relevant laws for the protection of personal data shall remain unaffected for the rest.

(3) In accordance with Sec. 15 (11) BbgHG ("Brandenburgisches Hochschulgesetz") [Law of the State of Brandenburg regarding Universities], the University is authorised to use the personal data of its former members and students (alumni), insofar as this is required for the purpose of survey in the context of quality assurance and for evaluations pursuant to § 7 (2) or for maintaining contacts with these persons. The storage of data, in particular as relates to exam results and degrees, is regulated pursuant to the BbgHG.

(4) I am informed that a refusal or revocation of the consent can entail the immediate and irreversible deletion of my personal data. My data may continue to be used in that case only within the limits of the applicable legal regulations based on statutory conditions for permission. This can entail that services pursuant to this contract can no longer be performed or only to a limited extent or only belatedly, as the performance of these services depends on the electronic processing of data and the transfer and processing of these data to and by third parties.

BY SIGNING THIS CONTRACT, I GRANT MY CONSENT TO THE USE AND STORING OF MY PERSONAL DATA TO THE EXTENT AS DESCRIBED IN § 11 (1) TO (4).

I HAVE THE RIGHT UNDER THE LAW TO REVOKE THE CONSENT GRANTED BY THE SIGNING OF THE CONTRACT AT ANY TIME IN WRITING OR BY EMAIL.

The revocation shall be directed in writing to the data protection officer at: University of Europe for Applied Sciences GmbH, Dessauer Str. 3-5, 10963 Berlin, or by email to: dataprotection@gusgermany.de

By my signature, I confirm to have received, read and understood the Data Privacy Statement and I consent thereto.

Terms of Use for the Portal/University IT Network of UE

The user undertakes to use the services of the University Network of UE for the intended purpose.

In particular, he/she undertakes not to abuse the possibilities to access the UE University Network and to refrain from any rights infringing or illegal activities. This includes in particular, refraining from merely any attempt to

- use other participants' login details for the UE University Network without authorisation,
- use unapproved services without authorisation,
- decrypt passwords of other participants of the UE University Network or of the system operator,
- read emails of other participants without authorisation,
- modify the files of other participants,
- interrupt or block communications services, e.g. by overload, if this is caused by the user,
- disseminate or provide access to criminally liable contents of any kind using the services of the UE University Network.
- The latter applies in particular regarding pornographic contents, contents glorifying violence or such that are aimed against the free and democratic basic order or the concept of international understanding, and regarding propaganda and symbols of anti-constitutional parties and associations or their surrogate organisations.

Furthermore, the user acknowledges that he/she is prohibited from installing unlicensed software on a university computer or making copies of software or having such copies be made.

UE reserves the right to block the login one semester after the end of the studies and to delete the user's data stored on the UE University Network. Moreover, the storage capacity of the email account and home directory can be limited if this becomes necessary due to the exceedance of the overall capacity made available.
